Case Number: 2024-00019989
Case Synopsis: On July 25th, 2024, Deputies responded to the 2500 block of Roland Drive in Champaign Twp in reference to a physical altercation between neighbors. It was advised that a neighbor arrived at the reporting party's home and battered her and that the issue stemmed from the suspect's child running into the street and nearly hitting the vehicle of the reporting party's mother. Upon arrival, contact was made with both parties who were separated. A video taken by a family member of the reporting party showed the suspect shoving the victim which caused her to strike a wooden post. The victim had a minor laceration to her arm but refused treatment. The suspect advised Deputies that the victim escalated the confrontation when she went to speak with her and that the victim had attempted to punch her, the victim's fist only just brushing the suspect's nose. An NTA for Battery was issued for the initial suspect and the initial victim advised that the other party also wanted to be victim of battery.
