Case Synopsis: On August 15th at around 1230 hrs, there was a radio request for additional officers for a subject at the Circuit Clerk's Office cursing and causing commotion. Familiar with who I believed to be the individual, I volunteered to go. As I approached the windows of the Circuit Clerk's Office, I could hear yelling and realized it was coming from a female I had previously had sitting in Courtroom E that had become disappointed that she could not have a meeting with Judge Rosenbaum.
