Case Number: 2024-00030222

Case Synopsis: On Saturday (11/09/24) at approximately 2217 hrs, Champaign County Deputy Sheriffs were dispatched to a farm in the Philo Township, for a domestic altercation occurring between two individuals in a dating relationship. Upon deputies' arrival, it was determined that the involved couple had been arguing in their shared vehicle, regarding their relationship. The female-half stated that the male-half had pushed her out of the vehicle, at which time she fell to the ground. A witness stated that this did not occur and that the male half had shoved him, at which time the female-half intervened. Due to conflicting recollections of the incident, all parties were separated for the night, as a CCSO deputy provided the male-half involved with transportation elsewhere for the night. The female-half was left to remain at the wedding party that the couple had been attending.
