Case Synopsis: On 2-19-26 Champaign County Sheriff's Deputies were dispatched to a bar in Mahomet Township for a report of a disorderly subject. Once on scene, Deputies spoke with the reporting party who appeared to be too intoxicated to articulate what her complaint was. She stated that the bar staff had told her to leave the establishment and that she had a ride home with her boyfriend who was in the driver's seat of a nearby car. He was found to also be heavily intoxicated. He was ultimately placed under arrest for driving under the influence of alcohol. While he was being transported to the Champaign County Jail, the reporting party became disorderly with other Deputies and attempted to reenter the bar after already being trespassed. When a Deputy attempted to stop her, she attempted to flee on foot and was quickly apprehended. She then began kicking the interior of the patrol car doors and windows. She then battered the Deputy as he attempted to further restrain her.

Case Synopsis: On Thursday (03/05/26) at approximately 1514 hrs, a Champaign County Deputy Sheriff was dispatched to respond to the Champaign County Courthouse in the Urbana Township, to speak with a female victim regarding her personal information being used fraudulently. During the deputy's time at the courthouse, a brief narrative of the incident was obtained from the victim and her husband that had also been involved. Both parties explained that the law office that they had hired to obtain child support from the mother of the husband's child, had failed to redact personal information and financial information from court documents that they had provided. Those documents were later given to the child's mother involved in error. During this incident, the female victim believed that the mother of her husband's child had used her financial information in an attempt to commit fraud. The female victim was able to close her bank account before losing any funds or assets.

Case Synopsis: On 3/27/26, at approximately 1319 hours, deputies traveled to the Country View Estates Trailer park, in reference to a routine "electronic home detention" or EHD check on a male. Deputies learned that the male was given permission by the EHD program director to move outside of the agreed parameters and would return home almost two hours later. Deputies performed a check of the residence and located cold unopened beer in the fridge, along with wine, cannabis, and white powdery residue. Additionally, deputies located two full boxes of Rimfire 22 cal ammo. Deputies spoke with the male, who advised he participated in smoking the cannabis, but advised it was his female friends. Additionally, the male advised that the white powdery substance would most likely be cocaine. The male was ultimately arrested and transported to CCCC.

Case Synopsis: On March 31st, 2026, at approximately 1611 hours, deputies were dispatched to the 500 block of South Dunlap for the report of 5 to 6 females fighting in the store. When the first deputy arrived, he was directed by store employees to the north end of the lot where the group involved were walking away. The group became increasingly more agitated and were not listening to commands given by the deputy. Two females were detained in handcuffs and in the rear of patrol cars so an investigation could be initiated. When other deputies got on scene to manage the group, interviews were conducted with the involved parties. It was determined that only two females were involved in the altercation and that the others present were bystanders. Neither of the involved females wished to be victims of a crime. One of the detained parties was evaluated by medical staff, cleared and released. All parties were released without incident.
