18:54:31 From Molly McLay : I'm sorry I didn't get to say this during the discussion, but thanks to the Redeploy group for speaking with us! I'm excited by this work. I'm heartened to hear that Professor Rachel Garthe is involved - I'm very familiar with her work and youth violence prevention is her main research area. She's well acquainted with various agencies and did this work from an evidence-based intervention perspective in Chicago before coming to UIUC. And she is involved with some research projects in the local schools too.
