Case Synopsis: On 01/31/2025 Deputies were dispatched to an area hospital in Urbana in reference to a domestic battery victim receiving treatment for injuries they sustained on 01/28/2025. The incident occurred between a dating couple (M/F) while they were leaving a home in Champaign Township. Deputies interviewed the female half and photographed her injuries. Deputies then met with the male half and conducted an interview. Due to the totality of the circumstances, the male was arrested for aggravated domestic battery and domestic battery with prior convictions. It should be noted at the time of the arrest the male is currently on probation for Champaign County court case 24CF758 involving a domestic battery conviction with the same female in 2024. The male remains in custody at the Champaign County Jail.

Case Synopsis: On Sunday (02/02/25) at approximately 2031 hrs, a Champaign County Deputy Sheriff and canine handler conducted a traffic stop in the Rantoul Township, after observing a vehicle being operated with suspended registration. During this incident, a narcotics detection canine was utilized to screen the exterior of the vehicle for the presence of illegal drug odor (s). Following a positive alert provided by the narcotics canine, the driver was asked to exit his vehicle, and his person was searched with consent. While searching the male driver, he began taking all of his clothing off and then proceeded to kick his shoes and several items of clothing, as well as gravel and grass at the involved deputy. The male driver was then placed under arrest for aggravated battery to a law enforcement officer. That male would later threaten another law enforcement officer with great bodily harm/death. He was taken to the Champaign County Satellite Jail for his charges.

Case Synopsis: On Wednesday (02/05/25) at approximately 1835 hrs, a Champaign County Deputy Sheriff was dispatched to place a phone call to an individual, who had wished to report a driver that had been operating his motor vehicle with a revoked Illinois driver's license. A short time after the mentioned phone call had taken place, the deputy observed a vehicle matching the description of the pickup truck, that the reporting party had provided a description of as the violator vehicle. The truck was then briefly observed, as it made several abrupt turns onto streets in the village of Tolono. The vehicle eventually came to a rest in the driveway of a residence. The driver then exited quickly and walked at a fast pace into his home. The suspect was later interviewed and admitted to operating his motor vehicle with a revoked driver's license. He was issued a citation and provided with a mandatory court date for his offense.
