Case Synopsis: On Saturday (12/21/24) at approximately 2021 hrs, a Champaign County Deputy Sheriff responded to a two vehicle crash in the Urbana Township, after one of the involved parties requested deputies to respond to her location to investigate the incident. During the traffic crash investigation, the at-fault driver displayed signs of impairment and admitted to consuming alcohol prior to operating his motor vehicle. He then explained that the victim vehicle traveled with its' bright headlights activated, causing him to operate his motor vehicle through the center of the roadway and toward its' northbound side. The at-fault vehicle then essentially side-swiped the victim vehicle on the northbound side of the roadway. At the conclusion of this incident, the at-fault driver was later placed under arrest for driving under the influence of alcohol. He was then transported to the Champaign County Satellite Jail for this offense.
